

THE 2014 PRUDENTIAL SPIRIT OF COMMUNITY AWARDS

for Middle Level and High School Youth Volunteers

If you've made a difference, we want to hear about it.

Maybe you raised money for an important cause, or coordinated a neighborhood cleanup. Maybe you collected food or clothing for the needy, or started a project to help disadvantaged children or senior citizens.

Whatever it was, we want you to tell us about it by applying for a Prudential Spirit of Community Award.

Every middle level and high school in America—plus a number of local youth and service organizations*—may select a Local Honoree. These honorees are then eligible for statewide recognition, a $1,000 award, a silver medallion, and an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C., where the top ten youth volunteers of America will be named next May. The ten National Honorees receive additional $5,000 awards, gold medallions, crystal trophies, and $5,000 grants from The Prudential Foundation for nonprofit charitable organizations of their choice.

2013 National Honoree Allyson Ahlstrom of Santa Rosa, California, created a full-service clothing boutique that has allowed 250 girls in need to each pick out two brand-new outfits for free over the past three years.

2013 National Honoree Joshua Williams of Miami Beach, Florida, created a foundation that has distributed more than 475,000 pounds of food to families in need throughout South Florida.

If you want to apply, or know someone who is eligible, visit <http://spirit.prudential.com> or www.nassp.org/spirit. Or call toll-free 1-877-525-8491.

*Applicants must submit applications to a school principal or to the head of one of the following officially designated local organizations: a Girl Scout council, a county 4-H organization, an American Red Cross chapter, a YMCA, or an affiliate of HandsOn Network. The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards are sponsored by Prudential Financial and the National Association of Secondary School Principals.
